

LAKE HARRIET YACHT CLUB 1983

Although the 1983 season holds many fond memories of good sailing, friendship and such these have to be tempered by the sadness we all feel with the death of a long time yacht club member - Dick Adams.

Dick was a dedicated sailor and his M boat "Spirit of '76" aptly reflected his approach to the sport of sailing - dedicated to the sport, always striving to be a strong competitor and to improve his abilities. This spirit was reflected over the years in his efforts to "play the sport to its fullness". He was always trying and never gave up trying to be the leader.

Since 1959 when Dick and his wife Marcie joined the yacht club along with their 3 boys Dick has been a dedicated sailor, starting out first as crew for his son Jim on their M boat. When Jim moved to Denver Dick became the skipper. While he was dedicated to sailing there were times such as on exceptionally windy days when you would find him on the dock - "didn't want to take a chance, breaking equipment", he would say. During the winter months he would often spend the evenings reading about sailing techniques to try out in the spring. When he was no longer able to sail you would often find him down at the dock, or in the crash boat, cheering on the other sailors. Just the sight of his courageous face gave us all heart.

While each of us have our own special memories of Dick he will be remembered by all for his dedication to sailing - his spirit - and simply for being Dick, a sailor, a neighbor, a friend.

In his memory the Dick Adams Memorial Trophy will be presented annually to the yacht club member who best typifies what he stood for in the sport of sailing - dedication, good competition, striving for improvement, helpfulness to others and friendship.

To Dick and his "always trying" spirit we dedicate the 1983 yearbook.
