Dear Fellow Sailors

The Lake Harriet Yacht Club sails through another year. Like the robins, we arrive in the Spring and are gone in the Fall. Without fail we shall return next year. It was a summer of disappointing, and at times, nonexistent winds. On the other hand, the summer was not short on heat, it was a hot one indeed. Regardless, we never slipped a beat, or a run.

Our membership numbers stayed afloat, a few old friends moved on, only to be replaced by new and enthusiastic additions. We bid farewell to long time sailing friends Kathy Schurdevin and family, Marge Byers and son Peter. Gone from sight, but not out of mind are the Louis', scheduled to return to the country next Summer.

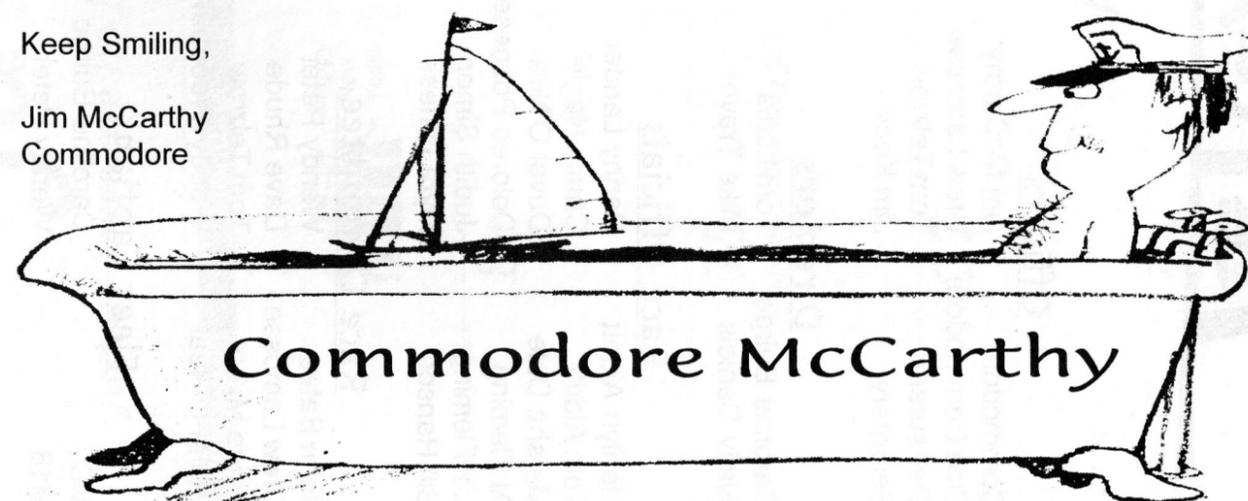

The year got off to a big bang with the Spring Regatta. Confronted with bad weather, the event forged ahead and ended up a huge success with 59 entrees. The regatta added a new innovation in the form of a silent auction. The items up for bid were impressive to say the least. Concluding the season was, of course, the Die Hard. With 52 boats present Mother Nature made up for a summer of little winds. Saturday was a real gale. By Sunday however, the winds ran out of gas and the day's races were abandoned.

Most of us would say that sailing was our first priority, with our friendships very close behind. Or is it the other way around. 1995 saw several friendships grow into marriages. At the head of the pack were Tran and Barb Alfrey, followed by Pete Taylor and Mahryam Daniels. Next in line were Steve and Brenda Myers. Last but far from least were brother John and Lynne (Stevensen) McCarthy. In addition to marriages, we welcomed into the world two teeny LHYC sailors, Ellen Kirkpatrick and Luke Buirge. Welcome aboard little mates.

During our nine years with this club Vicky and I have grown close to what we consider the real benefit of the Lake Harriet Yacht Club, the people. Sailing is the reason we live at the lake during the summer but it is people like you that make it a meaningful experience. We compete, we poke fun at each other, we gather to console, we gather to congratulate. You are a great bunch. I thank all of you for your help and support with a special thanks to the Board of Directors and the many committee people. As I sail off into the sunset I ask you to please join me in lending support to our 1996 Commodore, Drew Lamosse, who will with out a doubt continue to move us forward.

Keep Smiling,

Jim McCarthy
Commodore
